A charming frock coat for the little lady

Even if the party dress is picture-perfect, it might not be warm enough this winter. Keep your little girl cozy in a classic Isabel Ganson double-breasted coat. The winter-white wool is versatile enough to pair with cranberry, black, or pastel Princess seams and pleats create a darling shape, and the felt flower collar adds a touch of whimsy. Treat your favorite miss to the most luxurious children's apparel at Goodnight Moon, a boutique that features collections from designers Piet Bateau, Lil' Gaietta, Bonpoint, and Chantal.

Perfectly personalized pillows

What's better this time of year than snuggling with a cup of cocoa and a favorite pillow? Yet comfy can also be couture. With stark textiles, you can craft one-of-a-kind accessories at Make for your home or for a thoughtful gift. Depending on your DIY savvy, you can nab a custom pillow one of three ways: Drop in and let Make's designers create it, take the Design & Stuff it class or get the gift certificate and leave the choosing to the choosy. Pictured: Custom pillows, starting at $28. Class, which includes two pillows, $55.
